The next is Eardley Hall. That estate has been the Eardleys its beleived from the time of the building the house, and soe tooke its name from the owner. The last of the male as lived at it I beleive his name was Edward. He was a justice of the peace and an esquire. He had two brothers Richard and Ralph. Richard was a tradesman in London. He marryed and had a son named Richard. Mr. Ralph dyed a batchler about 60 years since and [was] buryed at Audley. Edward the justice of peace marryed and had two doughters named Elizabeth and Alice. Elizabeth marryed to Robert the eldest son of Sir Nickolas Willmot of Osmaston near Derby. Note : Mr. Edward Eardley left Eardley Hall to his wife for life. He dyed about 70 years since. She lived to see her eldest doughter marryed and have several children. Robert Willmot Esqr. who marryed her lived att Eardley hall till after the old gent[le]woman dyed, soon after went and lived at Osmaston, and dyed about 10 or 12 years since. Mr. Eardley of London had some property in Eardley demean after the death of old Madam Eardley. Old Madam Willmot and Mr. Willmot bought him out, and left it as reported to his grandson who is baptized Eardley and now a Councel att Law. Old Mr. Wilmot had 6 sons or 7, one of the two. They are al dead onely Robert and Edward who were the eldest. He had one daughter. She is dead. Robert the eldest married Ursula the daughter of Sir Samuel Marrow. He has two sons and one daughter liveing by her. He lives att Osmastone. He has given them estates in Audley parish that came by the mother Mrs. Eardley to his eldest son Robert who now enjoys them and lives in or near Derby. Alice the younger daughter of old Esqr. Eardley never married. She lived with her sister Willmot at Osmaston and dyed there about 20 years since. She left the bulke of her estate of land and moneys to her brother in law Willmot and his children. It was many thousand pounds value. [Richard Parrott AN ACCOUNTT .. ESTATES IN THE PARISH OF AUDLEY (1733) in SHC 1944 54-5]

Sacred to the Memory of Elizabeth and Alice the only daughters and co-heirs of Edward Eardley of Eardley in the County of Stafford Esquire who are interred near this place. Elizabeth married to Robert son and heir apparent of Sir Nicholas Wilmot of Osmaston, in the County of Derby Knight and had issue by him one daughter Ann married to Robert Revell of Carnfield in the county of Derby Esquire and seven sons viz: Robert married to Ursula one of the daughters and co-heirs of Sir Samuel Marow of Berkswell in the County of Warwick Baronet; Nicholas to Sarah Daughter of Joseph Lloyd of London Esquire; Edward unmarried; John to Catherine daughter of Frances Barker of London Esquire; Charles unmarried; Christopher to Ann sister to George Mountague Earl of Halifax; Henry to Catherine daughter of Christopher Dawson of Arthington in the county of York Esquire Alice died unmarried June 27 1713 aetat 66 [in her 66th year] Elizabeth died May 11th, 1715 aetat 70 [in her 70th year] Erected by all the children of Elizabeth then living (Nicholas and Henry being dead) who were her executors in remembrance of such eminent examples of piety and virtue 1716.
